Executive Summary

The meeting was a highlevel UNESCOhosted conference on African education, convened in Nairobi and chaired by the host countrys Minister of Education (SPEAKER00). The session was led by UNESCOs DirectorGeneral (SPEAKER01), who opened with an endorsement of the conferences success, presented the General Report, and called for broad dissemination and concrete implementation of its recommendations. The delegation from Kenya, represented by a ministerial delegate, expressed gratitude for UNESCOs support, highlighted the countrys openness to future cooperation, and reiterated the need for continued partnership. No formal voting or resolution was recorded, but there was a clear consensus on publishing the report, institutionalizing its recommendations, and securing resources for implementation.

			disseminate the report widely. Closed the conference, calling for solidarity, unity, and a collective effort to address neocolonial concerns and resource gaps.

Main Topics Discussed

1. Conference Success & Governance recognition of the events structure, lack of opportunism, and lasting impact.
2. General Report & Recommendations detailed overview, highlighting their realism, actionable nature, and necessity for followup.
3. Public Dissemination need to publish the report broadly and produce a publicfacing book/press release.
4. Implementation & Resources discussion on securing political commitment, funding, and staffing to operationalise recommendations.
5. UNESCOs Role & Africa UNESCOs obligation to support African states, improve efficiency, and maintain confidence.
6. Future Agenda & Collaboration inclusion of the topic in the next Executive Council meeting, Kenyas continued cooperation, and invitation to the upcoming UNESCO General Assembly.

Decisions Made

- Adoption of Recommendations the conferences recommendations were accepted as a foundational policy tool for African governments.
- Publication Mandate the Secretariat will publish the General Report for all stakeholders, including a publicfacing edition.
- Agenda Item for Executive Council the discussion will be scheduled for the next UNESCO Executive Council meeting (late August/early September).
- Commitment to Resource Mobilisation African governments and intergovernmental bodies will explore mechanisms to fund and staff implementation plans.

6	Coordinate Kenyas participation and followup visits with UNESCO	Kenyan Minister of Education	Ongoing
7	Disseminate the report to all delegations and developingcountry partners	Conference Chair (SPEAKER_00)	Within 2 weeks

Key Insights

1. Collective Ownership of Recommendations The General Reports recommendations are viewed as a living document, requiring sustained political will and resource backing to be effective.
 2. Importance of Public Engagement UNESCOs call to publish the report widely signals a strategic shift toward greater transparency and public buyin for African educational priorities.
 3. UNESCOs Continued Commitment to Africa The DirectorGeneral emphasized that UNESCOs role is to support African states confidence and to improve operational efficiency, reflecting a renewed focus on partnership rather than paternalism.
 4. Resource Gap as Critical Constraint Both the host country and other delegates highlighted limited financial and human resources, underscoring the need for creative mobilisation strategies.
 5. Future Institutionalization Inclusion of the topic in the next Executive Council meeting and the planned UNESCO General Assembly suggest a deliberate effort to embed these discussions into the organisations institutional agenda.
